

Multi-unit rock glacier system

Comment:

Rock glacier system constituted by various units that are spatially connected and partly superimposed (diverse generations).

The oldest unit is partially covered by more recently developed structures. Unit III is classified as simple, but unit II is very complex with overriding lobes of different generations and activity.

Tellers Davains,
Switzerland

46.5383°N, 9.6775°E
2200-2800 m.a.s.l.

